

Seminar speakers' reimbursement policy – January 2023

General principles

1. All exceptions to the expenses mentioned in the policy below, should, if possible, be agreed with the User Office before your trip, and should be referred to on the claim.
2. All expenses, even partially reimbursed, should be corroborated by proofs of payment or tickets (travel, hotel... exception for meals, see below).

Reimbursement of travel

1. A link to the seminar speakers' reimbursement policy is given in the invitation letter.
2. For speakers from Europe these are normally: economy flight, 2nd class train fare, public transport to reach ILL, and standard mileage rate in case of use of private car.
3. For speakers from outside Europe: ILL reimburses travel within Europe (i.e. ongoing flight or train fare) up to 300€.
4. In case of partial reimbursement, the amount to be paid is determined by SCO.

Reimbursement of accommodation

1. Speakers will be accommodate in the ILL Guesthouse, or "Residence Marie Curie" Hotel the approved number of nights, which will be paid directly by ILL using the Seminar Speaker budget. In this case, there is no reimbursement of accommodation.
2. Exceptionally, accommodation can be booked and paid by the speaker himself/herself and is then reimbursed to him/her by ILL up to the limit of 70 €/night.
3. A maximum number of 2 nights will be reimbursed or prepaid.

Reimbursement of meals

1. Meals are reimbursed as a lump sum of 20 €/meal, up to one per day for 2 days. No restaurant bills need to be submitted.
2. The number of meals reimbursed is calculated in accordance with the travel hours taking into consideration a free lunch provided on the day of the seminar (SCO canteen card provided).
3. If a speaker is giving a seminar during an experiment for which he is being reimbursed, he also receives a free lunch on the day of the seminar, all the other expenses being covered from the User budget according to the reimbursement procedure for Users.
